Introduction

Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement

The Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement is responsible for ensuring the welfare of dogs and puppies in licensed kennels. The bureau also regulates activities pertaining to dogs that are classified as dangerous and oversees annual licensure and rabies vaccinations for dogs.

Our state dog wardens:

- Enforce licensing and rabies laws.
- Seize and detain any dog viewed running at large without its owner.
- Investigate dog bites and establish and enforce quarantine of dogs.
- Enforce kennel licensing and regulations through at least two inspections each year of every licensed kennel.
- Maintain a registry of dogs declared dangerous by a magisterial district judge and perform dangerous dog inspections.
- Prosecute dog law violations in court.
- Provide educational services about dog ownership.

Pennsylvania's Rabies Law:

Ignoring Pennsylvania's rabies vaccination law can be costly – in more ways than one. Dogs and cats are exposed to the rabies virus through wild and stray animals, posing a threat to their health and yours.

- Dogs and cats three months or older must have a current rabies vaccination.
- Owners of non-vaccinated pets may be fined up to $300 plus court costs.
- Licensed veterinarians can vaccinate dogs and provide a vaccination certificate.
- Dog wardens perform random checks to ensure rabies vaccinations are current.

License Your Dog. It's the Law:

- All dogs three months or older must be licensed by Jan. 1 of each year.
- Owners of unlicensed dogs can be cited with a maximum fine of $300 per dog plus court costs.
- Dog wardens randomly canvass neighborhoods to ensure all dogs are licensed. Violators may be fined.
- If your dog gets lost, a current license is the fastest way to get your dog back home.
- Licensing fees help the millions of dogs in Pennsylvania by funding the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement.
- Purchase a license from your local county treasurer or issuing agent.
- An annual license is $8.50 and a lifetime license is $51.50, if your dog is spayed or neutered, the annual fee is $6.50 and lifetime is $31.50. Discounts are available to older adults and people with disabilities.

Pennsylvania's Dog Laws:

- If your dog is not licensed, you may be fined up to $300 per dog. Get a license at your county treasurer's office.
- Your dog must be under control and supervised at all times. You are responsible for any damages caused by your dog on someone else's property.
- It is illegal to mistreat or abuse animals. Report suspected abuse to your local humane organization or police.
- Intentionally poisoning a dog, whether it is yours or someone else's, is illegal.
- You may not abandon or attempt to abandon any dog. You could be fined $1,000 plus court costs.
- Puppies less than eight weeks old cannot be bartered, traded, sold, or transferred.
- You must have a kennel license if you keep, sell, transfer, adopt, or foster at least 26 dogs in a calendar year.
- If your dog attacks or kills a human or domestic animal without provocation, the dog may be considered dangerous. You may face extensive fines and restrictions.

License Your Dog in PA

All dogs three months or older must be licensed by Jan. 1 of each year. Violators can be cited with a maximum fine of $300 per violation plus court costs.

An annual license is $8.50 and a lifetime license is $51.50. If the animal is spayed or neutered, the annual fee is $6.50 and lifetime is $31.50. Discounts are available to older adults and people with disabilities.

The small license fee helps the millions of dogs in the state by funding the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement.

Dog licenses are available from your local county treasurer and other licensing agents.

Reasons for dog licensing:

- It's the law. All dogs three months and older must have a current license.
- If your dog gets lost, a license is the best way to get him back. A license helps animal control and shelters identify your dog and get him back home safely.
- The cost of a license is less than the penalty for being caught without one. Owners who fail to license their dogs could face a fine of up to $300 for each unlicensed dog.
- License fees support animal control. The annual fee you pay to license your dog helps keep shelters running and supports the work of the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement, which is responsible for ensuring the welfare of dogs, regulating dangerous dogs and overseeing annual licensing and rabies vaccinations.

2023 Dog Licenses Available at County Treasurers' Offices; All Dogs Must be Licensed by Jan. 1

<<CITY>>, PA – Pennsylvanians can now purchase 2023 dog licenses from their county treasurers. State law requires all dogs three months and older to be licensed by Jan. 1 of each year.

Insert a quote from the county treasurer.

An annual dog license is $8.50, or $6.50 if the animal is spayed or neutered. Lifetime licenses are available for dogs with permanent identification like a microchip or tattoo. Older adults and people with disabilities may be eligible for discounts.

The dog license application is simple. It only requires owner contact information and details about the dog, including name, age, breed, and color.

[Insert name of county treasurer] offered these reasons for dog licensing:

- A license is the best way to get your dog back if they get lost. A license helps animal control and shelters identify a dog and its rightful owners, and anyone can see the dog's tag. Microchips are not always easy to find.
- It's the law. All dogs three months and older must have a current license.
- The cost of a license is far less than the penalty for being caught without one. Owners who fail to license their dogs can face a fine of up to $300 for each unlicensed dog.
- License fees support animal control and public safety. The annual fee to license a dog helps keep shelters running and supports the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement's vital services to protect dogs and the public. Last year, the Bureau of Dog Law Enforcement:
 - Enforced health and safety regulations, upholding Pennsylvania's high standards for conditions in kennels by licensing 2,817 operations and conducting more than 5,943 inspections.
 - Investigated nearly 800 dog bites, and monitored 679 dogs deemed dangerous by magisterial judges, helping to ensure that dog owners keep dangerous dogs under control.
